Defendant.)

THIS MATTER is before the court on defendant's Motion for a Reduction in Sentence. Specifically, defendant asks that his final year of imprisonment be converted to home confinement so that he can seek medical treatment. First, there is no provision of law that would allow this court to alter or amend defendant's sentence at this point in time. See Fed.R.Crim.P. 36. Second, the Bureau of Prisons provides a full range of medical services, comparable to those available in any community. Defendant should discuss his medical needs with his BOP counselor. Having considered defendant's motion and reviewed the pleadings, the court enters the following Order.

ORDER

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that defendant's Motion for a Reduction in Sentence (#87) is DENIED
